Arscott, Alexander, 1676-1737.
Some considerations relating to the present state of the Christian religion, wherein the nature, end and design of Christianity, as well as the principal evidence of the truth of it, are explained and recommended out of the Holy Scriptures; with a general appeal to the experience of all men for confirmation thereof. By Alexander Arscott ... London, Printed: Reprinted by B. Franklin, at the New-Printing-office, in Philadelphia, 1732.
112, 31 p. 154 cm.
Part com.
Differs from the edition of 1781 in imprint and advertisement only.

Part II. Wherein the principal evidence of the Christian religion is explained and defended upon the principles of reason, as well as revelation: with observations on some passages in the book intitled, Christianity as old as the creation, so far as concerns the doctrine herein advanced. By Alexander Arscott ... London: Printed: Reprinted by B. Franklin, at the New printing office, in Philadelphia, 1732.
140, 24 p. 11. 15 cm.

BR130.A7 pt. 2
Wherein the evidence of the Christian religion is further explained and defended; in answer to the objections made against it in a late vindication of the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry: with an Appendix, containing some remarks on a passage in the second volume of Bishop Burnet's History of his own times. Part II. By Alexander Arscott ... London: Printed 1734. Philadelphia: Reprinted by Andrew Brindford, at the Sign of the Bible, 1738.
